

The Design and Learning Centre

The Design & Learning Centre for Clinical & Social Innovation works to co-design better, safer, cheaper and different care. We work with health and social care services across Kent and Medway and have been recognised as the innovation facility for the Kent and Medway Sustainability and Transformation Partnership with the Kent, Surrey & Sussex Academic Health Science Network.

This Impact Report sets out some of our achievements for July 2019.
